

November 2017

Great Southern Builders is awarded 2 PRISM Awards at the annual CHBA PRISM Awards Gala

The Charleston Home Builders Association has awarded Great Southern Builders with 2 Prism Awards for 2017. The 1st award received was for the Remodeled Home Category, in the $1.5M - $2.0M price range for a recently completed Kiawah Island renovation. The 2nd award received was for the Single Family Home Category, in the $1M-$1.5M price range for a recently completed custom home on Kiawah Island.

Brent Campbell and Dirk Brown, managing members of Great Southern Builders, stated, “We would like to thank the CHBA for recognizing us for these two prestigious awards. We would also like to thank our team members of architects, interior designers and subcontractors, all who played an integral part in helping us complete these projects on time and on budget.”

Great Southern Builders is a family owned custom home builder with over 40 years of combined home building experience. The company specializes in custom homes and high end renovations throughout the Lowcountry and Charleston’s coastal communities. For more information, please visit our website and photo gallery at www.greatsouthernbuildersllc.com.

